From Hon. W. H. Jones, of West Dover, Vermont.

"I have been troubled from my boyhood with chronic or hereditary lung complaint. Some years since, early in the winter, I took cold, which as usual settled into a severe cough, which continued to increase as the season advanced, although I made use of all the cough remedies I had knowledge of. My family physician also prescribed for me, but I felt no relief. During all this time I was gradually running down, losing flesh and strength, until my friends as well as myself, became very much alarmed, thinking I should waste away in consumption. While in Boston, during the spring following, I was induced to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. After one day's trial I was sensible that it was relieving me; in ten days time my cough had entirely ceased, and I was soon restored to my health and strength. I have ever since kept the Balsam in my house, and whenever any member of my family has a cough or cold, it is immediately resorted to. No family should be without it." Sold by all druggists.

A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine, often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschnee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill and, perhaps, death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. German Syrup is now sold in every town and village on this continent. Sample bottles for trial 10 cents; regular size, 75 cents. *

Coming to Oregon.

The afflicted will be glad to learn that a corps of Surgeons from the National Surgical Institute, fitted out with a complete assortment of apparatus for the treatment of every human deformity, will again visit Portland, Oregon, at the St. Charles Hotel from June 25th to July 1st, inclusive, 1878. This Institution, originally founded at Indianapolis, Indiana, has extended its business throughout the United States and has attained a reputation for the successful treatment of Spinal Curvature, Hip and Knee Joint Diseases, Club Feet, Paralysis, Piles and Fistula, heretofore unknown to the profession. References of the highest order can be given. *

Peace Proclaimed.—After ten years of active warfare! I have been at war with my customers for ten long years, and I am now ready to dye for them at reduced rates. Gents' clothes cleaned and repaired; faded curtains and clothing restored and made to appear as good as when new. Customers abroad will not have reason to grumble at prices if they send their articles to T. W. Pierre, tailor and dyer, Yates street, opp. Alhambra Hall. Castoff clothing taken in exchange for work. *

Dentistry.—Dr. Cool calls attention to the beautiful alluminium-lined vulcanite plates for upper and lower sets. The advantage of this work is that it is very thin, much stronger and lighter than the common plate usually worn; also, being a better conductor of heat and cold, it does not produce the iritation, sometimes caused by rubber or non-conducting substances. I make these sets for $35, something never before done, and guarantee my patrons that after once wearing one of them they will wear no other. The treatment of diseased teeth and fine operating I make a specialty. Teeth built up with pure gold to their natural contour; artificial crowns adjusted to roots in the best manner. Work of every description done anywhere I engage to do at the most reasonable prices. *

The Machine was Worn Out.

Why? Not because it was not well built, but it was wrongly run. Thousands of men who have run down long before their three-score and ten years are accomplished, might have been renewed into sprightliness and vim if they had tried the well-known Peruvian Syrup, which contains among its compounds the Protoxide of Iron, so combined that it assimilates with the blood and invigorates the whole system. This syrup has proved efficacious in thousands of cases, and will do everybody good who uses it. All druggists keep it. *

Old Chicory is almost a thing of the past. Finlayson's Coffee presides over the present. It has now superceded what used to be claimed as "superior to any other manufactured on this coast," and will soon be found on every well-furnished table in the Province. Prepared at his premises on Fort Street, and sold by all the principal dealers. *

If heretofore you have been unable to wear a set of artificial teeth call on Dr. Cool. He will guarantee all his work *

The Commons.—Mr. Wm. Dalby will be a candidate for the Commons in Victoria District. *

POLITICAL.

To the Electors of the District of Victoria, V. I.

GENTLEMEN: In coming before you as a candidate for the honor of being one of your representatives in the House of Commons in the next Parliament of Canada, I desire as briefly as possible to state my views on the main political issues of the day.

To my mind the Railway question in importance to the whole Province overshadows all others, and next to the Railway in importance to Victoria District is the construction at Esquimalt of a first-class Graving Dock. If elected, I shall most strenuously assist in demanding from the Dominion Government the just rights of this Province in connection with these two vital questions. I shall expect no impossibilities; but I shall demand from the Canadian Government an earnest commencement and faithful prosecution in this Province of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Nothing short of this will fulfil the solemn treaty obligations of Canada to British Columbia. So far we have had plenty of promises from Canada, which, alas! to her shame and disgrace have been broken; and sooner than submit to be humbugged in the future as we have been in the past I would sever the cord that binds us to the Confederation. I sincerely hope, however, the day will never come when this or any other Province in the Dominion will be forced for self protection to adopt so high-handed a remedy. In reference to the two political parties in Canada I believe the policy of the Liberal Conservative party best calculated to advance the true interest of our country, and to make it in deed, as well as in word, a great and prosperous Dominion. I further believe that in Sir John Macdonald, the Hon. L. H. Langevin and the Hon. S. L. Tilley we have true friends—men who have the heart and ability to carry out the liberal and advanced plans of the deeply lamented statesman Sir Geo. Cartier, whose rallying cry was, "All aboard for the West!" If elected, it shall be my pleasure to give that party a hearty support, providing they extend to this Province what is fair, right and just. I consider our first duty is to ourselves as British Columbians, and that if we are united and true to our own interests and act as one man in demanding simple justice we shall prevail. I shall aim to harmonize our own contending sectional elements, so as to make our power as a Province felt, always remembering that "united we stand, divided we fall.

If the foregoing views meet with your approval, and you think I have sufficient independence of character to carry them out, I respectfully ask your support.

I am, your obedient servant,
J. H. TODD.

ELECTIONS ORDERED--DUTY OF THE COUNTRY.

Elections to fill vacancies in the House occasioned by the acceptance of office by Messrs. Walkem, Beaven and Humphreys are announced in the Gazette. Under the Constitution, when a member of the House accepts office his seat in the House ipso facto becomes vacant, and he then appeals to his constituents to know if they approve or disapprove of his course, Should they approve of his acceptance of office, they re-elect him. Should they show they disapprove, they reject him. We may mention that it is an unusual circumstance for a member seeking re-election to meet with opposition in his own constituency. Two years and a-half ago a most unreasonable opposition was given the late Premier in this city, and his opponents very properly received a stinging rebuke at the hands of the constituency in the overwhelming defeat of their candidate. A like fate attended the opposition offered to the late Chief Commissioner's return in Yale district; but last year a member of Mr. Elliott's cabinet who had accepted office was defeated at Cariboo. On all these occasions we characterized the course of the then opposition as ungracious, ungenerous and unpatriotic, although not unprecedented. Consistency is said to be a jewel. We know it is a very rare one, but we claim that it is possessed by the party with whom we had the honor to act in the last House and no position is contemplated on their part to the return of Messrs. Walkem, Beaven and Humphreys. We will go further and say that in the present state of public feeling opposition (even if contemplated) would be looked upon as mere factiousness, and as such would be reprobated at the polls. The Walkem Government have a right to claim fair play. It was not accorded the Elliott Government, whose policy was clogged at every turn of the wheel. But two wrongs never yet made a right. The new Ministry should and will be judged by their acts; and in the present state of public affairs it would—to apply the mildest term—be unpatriotic to denounce them on "general principles" before their policy is before the country. From the tone of the Premier's speech on Saturday night last we incline to the opinion that he proposes to pursue a moderate and sensible course in dealing with the disturbing questions that now distract the Province. The country awaits with anxiety the enunciation of the policy of the new Government, and in the meantime they have a right to demand a "show" for their official lives.

DRUNKENNESS NOT HEREDITARY NOR A DISEASE.

Recently, in New York, the members of the Faculty of the State Lunatic Asylum (famous physicians) expressed their opinions as follows on drunkenness: The hereditary and transmission idea has induced men to blind themselves, and seek only gratification. It is not the father or the mother, says the Faculty, who is to blame for the son's drunkenness, but the son himself. Many defend their sons and husbands on the ground that it was born in them. It cannot be born in them. A kind word from the mother to her boy may save him, where the pretence of hereditary may send him to ruin. Drunkenness is a disease, and when a man has a flask in his pocket he has the disease. If it is gone, there is no disease. Inebriety is not a disease, but a self-provoked, temporary perversion of our natural functions, induced for the purpose of sinful gratification. Brain workers often engage to do more than their physical strength will sustain, and resort to brandy to quicken their flagging energies at the expense of that reserve force which no man realizes. The stimulant is soon taken too often; health breaks and habitual drinking habits are fastened upon him. Intemperance is sometimes due to a defective organization. It is the logical result of a defective training. It is not an inherent condition, but is acquired, and a condition for which the individual is responsible. Drunkenness is not produced by any disease or physical condition. It is a moral obliquity. Alcohol is not food; is not a necessity to healthy men, while men who are weak by inheritance—weak physically and mentally—ought to shun alcohol as they would a deadly malady. Alcohol always produces deliterious changes in the most vital organs of the body, from which spring most mortal diseases, and it increases the fatality of ordinary ailments. It is the amount of alcohol used, and not the form under which it is taken, that determines the amount of evil it will accomplish."

A Story that Reads Like a Chapter from "Les Miserables."

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer.]

Among the numerous moss-grown old tombstones in the graveyard of Willlamsburg, Virginia, is one which bears the following inscription:

Sacred to the memory of
SARAH SEMPHILL,
Who died at the age of twenty-five, slain, with her two infant daughters, by her own husband.
She was fair to look upon, pure as snow, and beloved by all who knew her.
Divine Providence alone knows why she had to perish so miserably.

This epitaph, some of the words of which are hardly legible any longer, is the only record left of one of the most terrible tragedies that ever took place in the Old Dominion.

It was in 1798 that John Semphill, a young man, who said he was from Santa Cruz in the West Indies, arrived at Williamsburg and settled there as a tobacco planter. He had plenty of money and was able to purchase about one thousand acres of the finest soil, within a short distance of the old town.

Being apparently a gentleman in every sense of the word, Mr. Semphill was admitted to the best society in his new home, and a year later he was married to Sarah Jones, a beautiful heiress, the festivities being celebrated with extraordinary pomp and splendor. In the course of time, two daughters were born to the young couple, and everybody predicted a long career of cloudless happiness for them. Alas! how terrible those bright anticipations were to be disappointed.

It was Christmas eve in 1801, that a strange looking man, in a sort of military uniform, appeared at the house of Mr. Semphill, who was in Richmond at the time. Mrs. Semphill received the stranger in the parlor.

"Do you speak French, madame?" he said to her in very broken English.

She replied in the affirmative.

"Then, madame, please send your two nurse girls with the children out of the room."

She did so, and looked interrogatively at her visitor. The latter hesitated a moment. Then he said in tone of deep emotion:

"Poor lady, I have terrible tidings for you."

"Heavens!" she cried, turning very pale; "my husband—"

"Your husband is an infamous villain."

"Sir!" she exclaimed, indignantly.

"He has basely deceived you. He is an escaped galley slave, a thief and a murderer!"

She uttered a heart-rending scream.

"Do you tell me the truth?" she gasped.

"He is a Spanish thief, and was sent to the galleys of Barcelona for life. He made his escape from there and fled to Cuba, where he robbed and murdered a rich planter. I am here to take him to Cuba, where the scaffold surely awaits him."

The afflicted lady had become strangely calm.

"Sir," she said to the stranger, "before you arrest him, will you permit me to hold a private interview with—with—"

"His true name is Juan Cefiro. If you will let me remain in an adjoining room until he returns from Richmond, where he has gone, I understand, you may see him privately."

"I expect him back every moment."

Half an hour later, Cefiro, alias Semphill, made his appearance. His wife briefly told him everything. He flew into a terrible rage. He shot her through the heart, and rushed out of the room to the nursery, where he stabbed his two little daughters. The next moment the Cuban officer, who had rushed after him, succeeded, after a desperate struggle, in shackling him. The news of this horrible tragedy spread like wildfire through the old town, and in less than twenty minutes a large concourse of people had gathered in front of Semphill's, alias Cefiro's house. Vociferous threats to lynch the murderer were made, and the Deputy Sheriffs, who were promptly on hand to arrest him, had the utmost difficulty in taking him to jail, where he was chained to the floor, having threatened to commit suicide.

The villain was hung on the 17th of May, 1803.

Scraps.

Edison has perfected a fog-horn that can be heard ten miles, but when it comes to an invention for getting his hired girl up in the morning, he smiles sadly and falls to musing on the infinite.—Utica Observer.

M. Louis Roederer, the great wine-dealer, has lost his seat—for Rheims—in the French Assembly; the illegal act proved against him being his promise, if elected, to buy up all the champagne in his district.

There is a story that a man went into a Newburyport liquor store and called for two quarts of rum, professing that it was for the purpose of soaking some roots. After the delivery of the liquor the dealer enquired "What roots?" "The roots of my tongue," said the man, but it was too late.

Saturday morning, May 18th, the great Jewish chancellor, Sir George Jessel, devoted four hours of his Sabbath to hearing and deciding the case between a clergyman of the English Church and his atheistical wife. The decision was given in favor of the husband; by it a beautiful little girl, Mabel Besant, aged eight, is removed from her mother's care, where she has been since 1873, when the parents separated. These are the latter days; mother is separated from daughter, and a Jewish judge lives to fulfil the prophecies of Christ. There was great excitement in the crowded court and even in the court-yard outside. The senior counsel of Rev. Frank Besant represented that the two were married in 1867. They separated in 1873, a deed having been drawn up assigning the boy to the father, except for one month of each year, when he was to be with his mother, while the girl was to remain with the mother under the same conditions.

There is a clock at Worsley, Lord Ellesmere's seat in England, which at one o'clock always strikes thirteen. The reason is that one day the great English canal maker of the last century, the Duke of Bridgewater, to whom the estate belonged, found a number of mechanics in his employ idling about after one, when they ought to have returned to their work. Inquiring the meaning of this, he was told that they had not heard the clock strike, it being much more easy to miss hearing the single stroke than half a dozen or so. The next day the clock struck thirteen and has done so ever since.

An amusing incident is told in connection with a recent debate in Parliament. A ministerialist offered a bet of a shilling during Sir William Harcourt's speech that "Historicus" would conclude his oration with the words "the British empire." The bet was accepted, and as the ex-Solicitor General began to perorate in his accustomed grandiose style, with much classic folding and unfolding of the arms, the excitement among the knot of M.P.'s who were in the secret of the wager grew intense. At last the end came; and Sir William sat down uttering in his most sonorous voice his closing words, "the empire." The ministerialist lost his bet, for the word "British" was not used, but he came very near winning it.

ELECTORS!
RESERVE YOUR PLEDGES.

TO THE ELECTORS OF VANCOUVER DISTRICT.

GENTLEMEN:—HAVING BEEN CALLED UPON by a large number of merchants, farmers, workingmen and others to represent Vancouver District in the House of Commons at the ensuing general election, and believing that there never was a period in the history of our adopted country more critical than the present—when honest, industrious men, who constitute the bone and sinew of the commonwealth, should look after their rights—when commercial men who are in the channels of trade—enterprising men who develop the resources of the country—workingmen whose honest toil revolves the wheel of commerce and puts the whole machinery in motion—should give that attention and care to public interests which are justly expected of every true patriot and loyal citizen. And having, moreover, been intimately acquainted with the political interests of the Dominion in the Eastern Provinces, and having helped to place men in power who have been the workingman's friends and the friends of progress, such as the Hons. Sir J. A. Macdonald, Ontario; S. L. Tilley, N. B.; Dr. Tupper, N. S.; and J. C. Pope, P. E. I.; I shall, if elected by your suffrages, be found working shoulder to shoulder with such men for the country's weal.

I am led to this determination for the simple reason that the present Government have failed to act justly with British Columbia, after five years of unlimited power. They have given us no definite hope of the immediate construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway and no change of Tariff on account of our isolated and distant geographical position. I advocate therefore:

1. Immediate railway construction and the honorable fulfilment of what is known as the Carnarvon Terms.
2. The erection of a Drydock at once as being, like the Railway, not only a Provincial but also a national necessity.
3. The importation free of duty of all material required for the rigging and fitting of ships that cannot be procured in this Province.
4. A just and equitable adjustment of both Export and Import Dues from a reciprocal point of view, which would benefit largely the Commercial, Mining, Agricultural and Lumbering interests of the Districts as well as of the whole Province.
5. I would also strive to secure a new Postoffice for the thriving city of Nanaimo, and failing in that, some improvement at least upon the shameful neglect of its present postal facilities.

Other local and provincial wants which may call for legislative redress shall receive, if I am elected, my serious attention and warmest support.

I shall take an early opportunity of holding public meetings in the various sections of your wide and extensive district (of which due notice will be given) at which I shall, as also in private intercourse, fully explain the course I intend to pursue, and hope as the result of that to receive your generous support.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
A. J. McLELLAN.

Latest from Cariboo.

[Exclusive to The Colonist.]

BAKERVILLE, June 29.—A meeting of members of quartz companies on the Bonanza to take the best means of opening the Cariboo Co's claim and erection of B. C. mill, Hon. H. M. Ball, chairman. J. S. Thompson, Sec'y, was held last evening. The chairman explained the object of the meeting and read telegrams from the B. C. Co. to D. Kurtz and Wilson, offering to co-operate with Cariboo Co., provided other companies interested would contribute two dollars per foot towards erecting the B. C. Mill, to be paid in crushing or unsold stock. Chairman read proposition of Cariboo Co., that the companies interested should contribute towards sinking the Cariboo shaft. After some discussion, Mr. Mason moved, seconded by Mr. Kurtz, that in the opinion of this meeting the best course of proceeding in the present emergency, both for the District of Cariboo and the province at large, would be that the several quartz mining companies interested in opening claims on the Bonanza ledge should contribute jointly towards sinking the shaft of the Cariboo Quartz Mining Co. in order to test the real value of the rock more thoroughly at a greater depth. Carried.

STEAMBOAT LAUNCH AT SOOKE.—The 41st anniversary of the Coronation of Queen Victoria was commemorated Friday in a lively way at Sooke by the successful launching of a beautiful steam propeller, built for the enterprising firm of Muir Brothers, whose venerable ancestor has laid the foundation of the houses of many a happy family in that thriving district. The weather was fine and everything favorable for an event, which was of all absorbing interest; and as the tide rose due care and precaution were taken to make the launch a success. About sunset the beautiful craft glided majestically into the harbor with hearty cheers from old and young who had assembled.

The important ceremony of christening was performed by Mrs. Michael Muir, and amid the cheers from deck and shore a handsome burgee of blue and white fluttered in the breeze and disclosed in good roman letters the name "Woodside," in honor of one whose patriarchal residence is so well known under that name. We might give a description of this yacht-like craft which was said by one to be "as beautiful as a peacock when on the stocks, and to float with all the majesty of the swan when in the water;" but it may be more interesting to the public to be informed that she was drafted by Mr. Samuel Sea, of Victoria, whowas the builder, and who has submitted a specimen of his handiwerk which will carry his name into every harbor in which this little vessel may trade or adventure. Her dimensions are 78 feet in length; beam, 15 feet; depth of hold, 6 feet 6 inches, with a half poop deck about 22 feet long and 2 feet deep. Her frame and fastenings and material are all of the very best, and workmanship has done justice to the wood, iron and copper of which she is composed. The engine is 35 horse-power made by Mr. John Dougal of Victoria, and the boilers and propeller by Mr. Spratt, where everything is in place under the care and superintendence of Messrs. Muir Bros. We hope to welcome the "Woodside" in the harbor of Victoria. She is admirably adapted to the carrying trade and all the requirements of Sooke, and can tow a frigate if required to do so on an emergency.

CRICKET. — The match between the married and single took place yesterday at Beacon Hill, resulting in an easy victory for the latter, who scored 80 to the married's 55. The play throughout was very fair, the bowling of Messrs. Bennett and Prior being most effective. The following made double figures for the married: C. E. Pooley 19, C. E. Dawson 11; for the single, E. King 17, W. Bennett 15, A. Rome 15, D. M. Eberts 10.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The following passengers from Victoria sailed by the Dakota for San Francisco, yesterday afternoon:—Mrs. W. Fairchild, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Warner and Messrs. J. C. Warner, B. Lewis, John Alners, P. Corneillers, P. Johnson, John Johnson, S. Murdock, Ed. Crosson, J. Riley, M. Blake, N. McCaffray.

PLEASURE TRIPS.—The steamer Leonora will leave the Hudson Bay Company's wharf for the "Gorge" to-day, starting at 11 a.m., 1 p.m., 3 p.m., and 5 p.m. She will convey passengers there and back at a cost of 25 cents each way.

THE names of successful candidates for entrance to High School on Vancouver Island will be announced on Wednesday morning next.

The "Heathen Chinee"—What an 11-Year Old Free School Pupil Knows About Them.

At the recent competitive examination for entrance to High School held throughout the Province the following was one of the questions in geography: "Tell what you can about China, its locality, race of men; food of the people, exports, &c." An eleven year old pupil in Chilliwhack answered thusly: "China is an empire in the southeast of Asia; the people live chiefly on rice; they like to smoke opium and chew it; they export rice, tea, and sometimes themselves to America and other continents; they are copper color; they live chiefly in Asia; they will soon live almost chiefly in most every country; they take tea leaves, which they have used themselves and chop them up and color them with copper; they have money with a square hole in the middle, and they put them on a long string and hang them around their necks; when they are young they shave off all the hair off their heads and only leave a little tuft of hair on the back of their heads, and when their hair grows they braid it and make a queue; sometimes they wind it around their heads, and sometimes they let it hang down very near to their heels; they have their own language and it is said to be the hardest in the world to learn; they are not very big in size, but some of them are pretty big; they are strong for a nation; they have seven million gods; they treat the Emperor very nicely; when they want to ask anything from him they have to knock their heads on the floor about twenty times before they can ask it; they call other people foreign devils; they have a god of thunder and in front of the god a woman stands with reflectors in her hand, which they say shows him where to strike." This youthful British Columbian passed.

Harvorly's Minstrels.

After completing a very successful engagement in this city Haverly's Minstrels will leave this morning at 8 o'clock per steamer Emma for Puget Sound. They gave a matinee yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock which was attended by a large number of ladies and children, and in the evening they made their farewell appearance to a most numerous and fashionable audience, amongst whom were His Excellency the Lieut.-Governor and family. The entertainments were as usual well worth witnessing, the company striving very successfully to create a favorable impression on the house. The several vocalists were heartily applauded and the artists who assumed the leading characters in the various comic and original sketches elicited unlimited applause. It is seldom that Victorians have been afforded a series of such enjoyable entertainments as those given by the Haverlys and they may safely be recommended to the patronage of the public of Puget Sound ports and other places they may visit. They deserve the support of the pleaure seeking community in whatever locality they may appear.

The International Base-Ball Match.

The steamer Isabel will leave here at 7 o'clock on Wednesday morning next for Port Townsend, having on board the Amity base-ball team of this city, who will compete in the International match at Olympia on the 4th of July with the Alki nine, chosen from the various places on Puget Sound. Notwithstanding the fact that the Amities are selected strictly from players of this city, it is hoped they will be able to play an interesting and perhaps a victorious game with their competitors, who, it is stated, will not be selected exclusively from any one town or club on the Sound. If the Amities, therefore, prove successful, so much the more credit to them. On arrival at Port Townsend the team, together with other excursionists, will be transferred to the steamer North Pacific and conveyed to the scene of the match and general celebration. The price of tickets for the round trip has been fixed at $7 each—reasonable enough considering the distance to be traveled.

WAGES AND LIVING IN IRELAND.—The Department of State at Washington is gathering statistics relative to the prices of labor in different countries. The United States Consul at Belfast, Ireland, sends the following: "In this part of Ireland, farm hands receive about $2 per week, with board and lodging; railway and other laborers $4 50 per week; and mechanics, $4 50 to $6 per week, according to ability. The cost of living is about ten per cent. greater than five years ago, while wages remain about the same. Of the necessaries of life, flour costs 56 cents; oatmeal, 32 cents; potatoes, 24 cents; and Indian meal, 28 cents, per stone of 14 pounds. Rent varies from $20 to $85 per annum. The complaint is general that trade is very unsatisfactory. The linen mills run from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., with two hours' interval for meals. On Saturdays, they close at 2 p.m."

NOT TRUE.—The New Westminster Mainland Guardian says: "The extraordinary story about Mrs. Hills' insanity was all pure invention. It would appear that the passage was very stormy and Mrs. Hills became very nervous. The surgeon on board administered morphine with the object of producing sleep, but unfortunately produced a contrary effect, and the result was excessive nervous paroxysms, with great cerebral disturbance. The lady lost all consciousness till her arrival at San Francisco, when the system entirely recovered its normal condition, and she proceeded on her journey in perfect health. It is an excellent illustration of the old story about the three black crows."

THE EXCURSION TO NEW WESTMINSTER. The steamer Wilson G. Hunt will leave here this afternoon at 2 o'clock with the firemen, rifle team and excursionists, who intend to participate in the celebration of Dominion Day at New Westminster. Professor Haynes' band will be on board and play appropriate airs during the excursion. On arrival at the wharf the members of the fire department and rifle team will be received by committees appointed by the people of the Royal City who seem determined to make the celebration a complete success. The price of tickets for the round trip has been fixed at $2, a very moderate charge.

INTERNATIONAL CRICKET MATCH.—The Victoria eleven selected to play in the international cricket match at Portland on Thursday and Friday next will leave here at 6 o'clock to-morrow morning per steamer Isabel, being accompanied by a number of friends who take a lively interest in the game and who anticipate a very enjoyable trip. The eleven will return on Monday, the 8th prox.

NAVAL CONTRACT.—Tenders will be received at the Royal Naval Yard until noon of Thursday, 1st of August next, for supplying coals, fresh beef and mutton, vegetables, firewood, lumber and water; likewise, fresh butter, milk, eggs and fowls for the Naval Hospital.

A Columbian Divine at the Ontario Methodist Conference.

Rev. Amos E. Russ, M.A., from the field in British Columbia spoke as follows: He said they should not believe all they heard against that Province, because like things had been said about Ontario before it had been well settled. British law and order was there as much respected as here. At their last district meeting the report showed twenty-five churches, fifty-four preaching places, church sittings four thousand, number in attendance 6,270, value of church property $71,000. He had been in British Columbia for six years, most of his time being spent in Victoria, the capital, where their people not only supported Grace Church, but conducted work among the Indians and a school for Chinamen. What they wanted was money to educate and employ a Chinese agent. In 1868 there were 68,000 Chinese on the Pacific coast; that is, in British Columbia, California, Oregon, and Washington Territory; now they numbered 150,000. British Columbia had 3,000, one-third of whom were in Victoria. The Chinaman could be kept from this Continent neither by British, nor American, nor any other law. He is determined to come in. Here then was a large opening for work. The Indians also needed attention. In one of his trips to Fort Simpson he found that noble hero, Brother Crosby, and his amiable and courageous wife, doing a grand work there. (Applause.) They would both be a credit to any mission field. From six o'clock in the morning till ten at night the Indians called at their house for medicine and medical treatment. A Miss Knott, who was with them, aided not only in their school but in other ways. Fort Simpson contained a population of about 1,000. [He showed the audience a water-color sketch of the place, which, he remarked, had been painted by an Indian lad about eighteen years of age.] This lad never had a drawing lesson, but drew that sketch by his own natural genius. If they had any rich old miser in Toronto, with whom they did not know what to do, let them send him up there, and the Indians would make him "shell out." (Laughter.) The journey would be only 1,200 miles, and the cost only $50. (Renewed laughter.) Some of the fortifications of the place, which existed in 1874, were now removed, and that was effected by nothing but the power of our holy Christianity. (Applause.) Of course he would not forget that the grand old Union Jack, which waved there as freely and as greatly honored as in Toronto, exercised its influence in ameliorating the condition of affairs among the Indians. He then gave an account of a canoe trip in company with Mr. Crosby to a settlement on the Naas River, where the Indians, numbering between fourteen and fifteen hundred, employed themselves catching small fish called hoolicans, about the size and very similar to sardines. The grease of this fish, which they put up in large bags, was both butter and sauce to these people. He was occupied on the morning of his arrival from 9 o'clock till twelve shaking hands with the villagers, and he could assure them that at the close he was very much anointed. (Laughter.) He need hardly mention the aroma of the occasion, as the Indians did not pack the grease until it had been standing for two or three weeks. (Renewed laughter.) On the following Sabbath no less than nine services were held, beginning at half-past six in the morning and continuing until half-past ten at night, and he thought he had never spent a more interesting Sabbath in his life. The district known as the Grease Trail were asking imploringly for a missionary; he had just received a letter from Brother Crosby urging him to secure one. There were eight or nine thousand Indians up there waiting for the Gospel tidings, and he believed there were resources enough in Ontario to supply their want. The reverence of the Indians for the house of God was beautiful and gratifying, and their liberality fully equal to their means. Last October the roof of their magnificent church at Fort Simpson was blown off by a storm, and they set to work, and, unaided, at a cost of $1,000 had it put on again. He conducted a Bible class of 600 every Sabbath afternoon at the fort, and the Indians most devoutly studied the Scriptures. One of the wants there was a school-house. Brother Crosby, in his unbounded generosity, had already exceeded his means, and it was to be hoped the people of Ontario would come to his help.

New Westminster District.

[Herald.]

The hour for the Rifle Match on Dominion Day, will not be fixed until the arrival of the Victoria team. It is a question between shooting in the forenoon and missing the horse racing; and shooting in the afternoon and missing the sports and games.

Some gentlemen yesterday washed out a few pans of dirt taken from a lot on Mary street and obtained a small quantity of gold. There wasn' enough of it, however, to get excited about.

W. H. Lowe, Esq., Collector of Customs at this port, having retired on superannuation allowance, John S. Clute, Esq., has been appointed to the office, and will take charge on the first of the month.

Mr. W. Moresby has been appointed Warden of the goal, vice Mr. McBride, appointed to Penitentiary.

[Guardian.]

Our citizens are putting on their best bibs and tuckers for the reception of the guests from all quarters, who are expected here on Dominion Day. Great wagon loads of evergreens ar constantly passing through our thoroughfares, and bunting is in demand. The bazaar for the St. Ann's Convent will be quite a pretty affair; the fitting and decorations are well advanced.

THE bark Princess Royal was towed yesterday afternoon to Esquimalt, where she will receive a portion of her cargo, consisting of furs, oil, etc.

Election of a School Trustee.

A meeting was held yesterday at the City Council Chambers for the purpose of receiving the annual report of the trustees and to elect a trustee in the place of Mr. James Fell, who retired.

Dr. Ash having been voted to the chair, the Secretary, Mr. W. Wilson, proceeded to read the report, which stated that out of 1929 children attending the public schools, (excluding the High School) Victoria sends 617, or nearly one-third of the total number. Of the 50 boys and girls who passed the competitive examination for entrance to the High School in 1877, less than 33 belonged to our school, so that with one-third of the number of scholars our children carried off two-thirds of the honors. This gratifying result is mainly to be attributed to the teachers who are selected by the trustees. During the past year the trustees have secured the services of Mr. Jas. N. McLaughlin and Mr. G. C. Phinney, both highly trained and efficient teachers. The educational staff is, in the opinion of the trustees, a most excellent one, an opinion which they believe will be shared by all those parents who attended the recent examination. They regret that there are a number of bills outstanding for the year, but as no appropriation has been made they still remain unpaid. They trusted that the public schools at the hands of the Government would continue to receive prompt and generous attention. Mr. Wilson said there was one difficulty which the trustees had to deal with, viz: many of the parents objected to their children passing out into the High School, because they considered the teaching there was not as good as in the lower. This consequently caused a deadlock at the head of the school. The trustees have nothing to do with the appointment of masters for the High School, but he hoped the difficulty would be overcome now, as the Board of Education are examining into the condition of the High School. He was strongly opposed to the Government grant of $46,000 being voted in a lump sum, as he considered it would be more beneficial to make appropriations for each district. The trustees complain that there are not sufficient teachers, as they think 40 children were quite enough for one teacher, whereas now the average number of children to each teacher is between 40 and 60. The trustees have the power to appoint a teacher, but unless the Board of Education sanction that appointment the teacher will get no salary.

Dr. Ash said the power of the Board of Education was very limited indeed.

Mr. Wilson then read the cash account which showed the entire expenditure of $500 appropriated for 1877.

The reports were adopted.

Mr. James Fell the retiring trustee was then re-elected by acclamation.

Mr. Wilson said one matter which required the earnest attention of the ratepayers was separating the girls' school from the boys'. Mr. McKenzie, the principal of the school, he said, was most earnest in his support of the measure, which they have found necessary to introduce in San Francisco.

Mr. Fell believed that where good teachers are appointed and proper supervision exercised there is no occasion for separating them. He considered it most advantageous that both sexes should be at the same school, and saw no reason to doubt that in the present instance due care was being taken of the children.

The meeting then adjourned with a vote of thanks to the chairman. The attendance of ratepayers was very small indeed, there being only eleven persons present.

Fraser River Fishery Regulations.

At a meeting of cannery proprietors held at New Westminster a few days since, a resolution was carried protesting against the regulations recently imposed by the Dominion Government, and the following telegrams subsequently passed between Dr. McInnes, M. P. and the Minister of Marine and Fisheries:

NEW WESTMINSTER, June 22.

Sir Albert J. Smith,
Minister of Marine and Fisheries,
Ottawa.

Please withdraw adoption of Fishery Regulations, till further advised by letter. There is no salt water salmon fishing in B. C. Rivers. Does "fresh waters" mean waters affected by tides? Enforcement of this rule virtually closes canneries. Closing salmon fishing till midnight Sundays compels canneries to close Monday for want of fish. They ask for closing time to be from noon Saturday to 6 p. m. Sunday. Please reply.

T. R. MCINNES.

OTTAWA, 25th June.

Fishery Regulations amended according to your reccommendation. Anderson so instructed.

Cariboo Mining Notes.

Letters from Barkerville mention that the Perseverance Company will have to run 30 feet further before striking their ledge. Rich results are anticipated.

In the St. Lawrence location the workmen have nearly reached the ledge, and have passed through several stringers that show good ore.

Riotte has expressed himself as well pleased with the Perseverance claim, which the "boys" regard as arguing ill for their success.

The Cæsar that Riotte came to "bury" is now said to be Harper. He found his subject rather a healchy corpse and the obsequies have been postponed indefinitely.

Our correspondent writes that before sending the news dispatch of the 14th June (published in The Colonist of the 16th) he showed it to Mr. Riotte, who approved of it. This was six days after he had written to Mr. Lane condemning the Bonanza lode.

The South Thompson Indian Reserve.

EDITOR COLONIST:

Mr. Sproat has presented through your columns of May 8th a rather formidable array of figures to convince the public that we in a former communication made an inappropriate use of the word huge, as descriptive of the Indian reservation in this immediate vicinity.

This reservation embraces the entire North side of the valley for a distance of not less than ten or twelve miles. It crosses to the South side at the North-east of us and includes several miles in length there; it again crosses and completes its circuit by taking in some 3,000 acres on the South side of the river to the South-west of us, and the bands to which this allotment is made have three or four other detached grants of large extent. Such is the Indian reservation within which our property is coralled, and we believe any one, not excepting the Commissioner himself, if placed in our position, and forced, on going from home, to pass for four miles through a worse than penal colony—a settlement composed in part of convicted, in part of unconvicted felons—before being able to breathe the pure, untainted air of freedom, would readily admit that no more fitting appellation could be applied than a huge Indian reservation.

If, as Mr. Sproat asserts, this land is "Merely unfit for any purpose," why was it granted to the Indians? Why subject a few settlers to lasting annoyance and aggression, and ruin their prospects socially and financially merely to gratify the Indians in the possession of what can be of no practical benefit to them? Were the Commissioners acting on the principle which we are all advised is neither natural or correct—a child calling for bread to receive a stone? In this instance, perhaps the worst feature is the fact that "the stone" can only be used to harass and damage the adjacent settlers. Whether we number our acres by the hundreds or by the thousands can neither directly nor indirectly have any bearing upon the subject at issue; further than the greater our interests here the more heavy must consequently be our loss. Were our land of an inferior quality and of little value we might abandon it without much sacrifice. It is sad commentary upon the frailty of human nature, that in many communities there are malevolent, Janus-faced meddlers, who, impelled by selfishness, by envy, by malice or some other sentiment equally base, are ever ready to travel out of their way to advise or procure the infliction of an injury upon a neighbor, and though learning with surprise and sorrow that such characters exist in our near vicinity, Mr. Sproat has our hearty thanks for pointing them out and directing our attention to them. But is it not somewhat singular that natural instinct did not warn him that it was the interference of an enemy which was intervening? Our complaint from the first has been based upon the fact that our social and financial prospects were being ruined by such objectionable surroundings, and we have contended that a State has neither the legal nor moral right to make such unanticipated disposition of the public domain as to make the settler's social position the most unpleasant imaginable, and to make his legitimately acquired property of no value in the market of the world; and until it is proven to the satisfaction of the public that a free State has such a prerogative, the discussion of minor points and side issues may very properly remain in abeyance. To gratify Mr. Sproat's curiosity, we will simply state that not deeming it necessary that each of our individual names be subscribed to these papers, we have adopted a collective one. SHUSWAP.

A Grief Stricken Parent.

The customer was a stranger, and as he sat down on the coffin box he dropped his arms on his knees, put his fingers together, and beat his head forward in a bargaining way forearmed the transfer agent for the coming struggle.

"I'm poor very poor," the first line of skirmishers in the attack: "I've scarcely enough to carry the poor boy home that his mother may take one last look at her idol's face"—snifles marking the last column of the advance corps—"I ask you, sir, to pity my condition, and to do the best you can for me.

The grave-faced undertaker shook the stangers hand, and in frenzed and professional sympathy, and in husky tones, said, as he thumped a pine coffin to show its soundness, "Here's a pretty one; strong wood, elegant polish, soft lining, and I'll put it, sir, to you below cost—$18."

"Can't pay it, sir, can't pay it"—disappearance of agitation. "There's a knot there, and you see the pillow is soiled. It's too dear entirely."

They fought sharply and fiercely, and the undertaker fell back to $15, swearing it was given away.

"Well, you will pack it in ice for that, I suppose?" said the generous, grief-stricken parent.

"Great grave clo'se, no! It will cost three dollars to pack it in ice at the lowest figure."

Hostilities were resumed, and the fight waxed hot, but the threat of seeking another coffin-dealer forced the undertaker back to fifteen dollars for coffin and packing.

"Well," said the poor sufferer, "I'm too poor to luxuriate in ice, so we won't pack him. That puts the coffin at twelve dollars."

"But—"

"You wouldn't swindle a poor anguish-smitten father?"—he capped the interrogative with tears, and the undertaker despairingly gave in.

"The coffin has no handles," said the parent, blowing his nose.

"Of course not."

"Well, I can't take it then."

"Why, man," cried the exasperated dealer, "the handles are worth one dollar and fifty cents!"

"You must throw them in, or I'll throw up the trade."

"But I've really lost five dollars by this trade now."

"Can't help it. Will you not pity my poverty,"

The handles were thrown in at twelve dollars for the rig.

The purchaser paused and meditated, and the salesman's face wore a puzzled "what next" look.

"I'm too proud, too extravagant," mused the parent. "What matter pomp and show over the dead? Away with vanity! I won't take the handles." To the undertaker: "Take off $1 50. I won't take the handles."

"What!" screamed the coffin man.

Mildly and logically the parent put it:—"You gave the coffin and handles for $12. You said moreover that the handles were worth $1 50. I don't want the handles, and that makes the coffin $10 50. If you say, now, $10 for the coffin, I'll take it.

"No!"

"Then, adieu, sir, adieu. I will go where the poor smitten father, too deep in sorrow for business, can find one who will not take advantage of his situation. Adieu, sir."

"Stop, stop! take it," called the coffin man. "It's ruinous, but you can have it."

Then the parent pulled out his wallet most plethoric, smiled sadly, and paid his $10 to the conquered tradesman.—Memphis Avalanche.

A Wife's Terrible Crime.

This town was thrown into a terrible excitement to-day over a domestic tragedy of almost unparalleled atrocity, in which Jennie Miller beheaded her husband, Anderson Miller, while they were at breakfast. It seems that he was of a cool, quiet temper, but she was notorious as a tartar. The two had been seated at the table but a few minutes when Mr. Miller ventured to remark: "Wife, here's a fly in the gravy." At this Mrs. Miller screamed out, "that's the way with you, you are all the time finding fault." The husband said, "Oh, no; I just happened to see the fly and thought I would tell you." The spunky woman replied, "You are a liar; flies never get in my gravy." Words multiplied, and in a little while Mrs. Miller was waltzing around the room, smashing up the furniture. Finally the husband ordered the wife to leave the house. She ran out and seized an ax which was on the porch, and rushing back to her husband, dealt him a heavy blow on the back of the head while he still sat at the table. He tried to get up, but she repeated the blow, which felled him to the ground. Then in her brutal rage she severed the head from the body.

A guest of Mr. Miller was up stairs while the bloody work was going on, and he got into the dining-room just in time to see the end of it. As he entered, the guilty woman held the head of her husband up, and with an exclamation dropped it to the floor and fell in a swoon.

The news of the murder spread rapidly, and Mrs. Miller was promptly arrested and lodged in jail. The Millers had been married about two years. His parents and friends advised him against the match, on account of her high temper, but little was dreamed that the result of the marriage would be so horrible.—Burkville, Va., Dispatch, June 9th, to the Cincinnati Enquirer.

FISHERIES.

WE INVITE THE FISHERMEN OF BRITISH Columbia to ask their merchant or outfitter for samples and prices for our STANDARD COTTON SEINE NETTING AND NETS; 70 lbs cotton gives as large area of spread as 100 lbs net. Cotton is universally used in the United States, France and England in the fisheries, and it is more economical and durable than hemp.
